Notary Public
BLAW 340

Overview

If you want to be a Notary Public, University of Louisiana at Lafayette has a class for you! We will offer a basic notary test preparation course in the Fall 2022 semester on Tuesday evenings from 6:00-8:50 p.m. Fred W. Davis, Adjunct Instructor and local attorney and notary, will teach the course.

The course is designed to prepare students for the state notary test. In addition to effective and dynamic classroom instruction, testing similar to the components on the state test will be offered in the course and will assist students in preparing for the state exam.

For more information on the state notary exam, please view the Louisiana Secretary of State's website at www.sos.louisiana.gov.

When

Tuesdays-6:00-8:50p.m.

August 22– December 9, 2022

Tuition & Fees

- $25.00 one time application fee-if paid by July 1, 2022. *Any application fee payment made after July 1st, will be assessed an additional $25 late application charge.

- Assessed at current tuition rates

- Tuition and fees does not include required textbooks, workbooks, or parking.

How to enroll using our online application

1. Go to www.louisiana.edu

2. Click Admissions

3. Click Apply Now (Apply for Admission– Undergraduate Students)

4. Create an Account in order to apply online. You may apply as a non-degree seeking undergrad student.

Upon acceptance, you will receive information in the mail on how to schedule the course and pay fees via ULink.*

Instructor Contact:
Fred Davis, JD
Moody Hall room 240
337-482-5387
fred.davis@louisiana.edu

Enrollment Assistance:
University Connection
Martin Hall room 169
337-482-6729
universityconnection@louisiana.edu